

SEDOL PARAEDUCATOR TRAINING ACADEMY TECHNOLOGY COURSE #1 REGISTRATION

As part of the SEDOL Support Staff Association (SSSA) contract, SEDOL is responsible for providing training programs for the support staff through the SEDOL Paraeducator Training Academy. Eligible employees are required to complete a three (3) course sequence in order to qualify for the Paraeducator Training Academy Stipend. The three (3) course sequence is currently comprised of the following:

1. Technology Training Sequence – 20 hour program
2. Data Collection – 20 hour program
3. Collaborative Problem Solving and Teaming – 20 hours

The Technology Training Sequence course will be offered beginning February, 2010. Listed below are the dates and times for this 20 hour training program. All classes will be held at Cyd Lash Academy in the Resource Room (upstairs library).

DATE	TIME	DATE	TIME

In order to qualify for the Paraeducator Training Academy Stipend, successful completion of this course is required. Successful completion is defined as "regular attendance at all sessions, active participation, completion of assignments and achieving 90% or better on the written test of materials presented."

I would like to register for the SEDOL Paraeducator Training Academy Course, Technology Training Sequence, offered in February and March. I understand successful completion of this course (and two (2) others) is required in order to qualify for the Paraeducator Training Academy stipend. A Letter of Intent is required for salary advancement upon completion of the three (3) course sequence.

You may only register for one course per semester.
